Camper Code of Conduct

In order to maintain high standards of morality, health and safety, and to abide by the laws of our nation and state, the following rules and policies have been established by the Camping Ministries Board of Rock River Bible Camp. Violation of the rules may be punished up to expulsion from the camp at the parent's expense and financial restitution for willful property damage.

1. The use, possession or distribution of Tobacco, alcoholic beverages, controlled substances, illegal drugs and fireworks is not permitted.
2. There is no swimming in the Rock River. Waterfront activities are limited to fishing, boating, canoeing, water skiing and tubing. Adult supervision must be present at all times during these activities. Life jackets must be worn by all boaters, canoers, tubers and skiers.
3. All prescribed and over-the-counter medicine must be turned over to the Camp Nurse upon arrival at the camp. The nurse will dispense all medications only according to the specific written instructions of the physician or parent/guardian.
4. No food or beverage is to be taken into the cabins.
5. Campers are not permitted to leave the camp grounds or outside activities for any reason without the direct permission of the Camp Dean.
6. Loitering in or around cabins designated for the opposite sex is prohibited.
7. All clothing must be modest and in good taste. No vulgar or offensive language or unwholesome activities may appear on the clothing.
8. Shoes must be worn at all times, except for prescribed activities.
9. Campers are expected to attend and participate in all planned activities and meals unless excused by the Camp Dean.
10. Campers driving vehicles to camp will park them in the designated area and turn all keys over to the Camp Dean.
11. Campers will perform routine cleaning chores in their cabins, at meals and on the grounds and be involved in light work projects.
12. Campers will be self-disciplined in keeping these rules and help monitor the compliance of other campers.

We have read the above information and will abide by these rules.
